

Nevada Archives Month

October 2016

*Archives are important to History
Day*

Nevada History Day students researched primary source materials from archival collections across the state, the country, and the world. They analyzed and interpreted our rich documentary heritage in their projects. This year, 43 Nevada students competed against other states and territories at the National History Day contest. They were Nevada's All-Star History Team.

National History Day in Nevada